

Preventive Care Screenings

Getting the right screenings at the right times are some of the most important things you can do for your health. Eating right, staying active and maintaining a relationship with a primary care physician can help you get healthy and stay healthy. If you're not up-to-date on your health screenings, then it's time for a check-up from a Utica Park Clinic doctor.

Age 18-39

General wellness exam: Check blood pressure, heart rate, temperature and overall health every one to three years for adults ages 19-49.

Cholesterol: At least once every five years for adults ages 20 and older.

Vision: Every two to four years for adults ages 20-64.

HIV: Annually for adults ages 18-65 based on risk.

Men

Testicular exam: Annually for men ages 14-35.

Women

Cervical cancer: Pap test every three years for women ages 21-29. Pap test with HPV screening every five years for women ages 30-65.

Breast cancer: Once every three years for women ages 20-39.

Age 40-49

General wellness exam: Check blood pressure, heart rate, temperature and overall health every one to three years for adults ages 19-49.

Cholesterol: At least once every five years for adults ages 20 and older.

Vision: Every two to four years for adults ages 20-64.

HIV: Annually for adults ages 18-65 based on risk.

Diabetes: Begin at age 45, then every three years. More frequently based on risk.

Men

Prostate cancer: Begin at age 45 for African Americans and other men with higher risk, and at age 50 for men with lower risk following an informed decision-making discussion with your PCP.

Women

Cervical cancer: Pap test with HPV screening every five years for women ages 30-65.

Breast cancer: Mammography is optional every other year based on risk.

Age 50-74

General wellness exam: Check blood pressure, heart rate, temperature and overall health annually.

Cholesterol: At least once every five years for adults ages 20 and older.

Vision: Every two to four years for adults ages 20-64.

HIV: Annually for adults ages 18-65 based on risk.

Diabetes: Every three years. More frequently based on risk.

Hepatitis C: Once for adults born between 1945 and 1965.

Colon cancer: Colonoscopy by age 50 then every ten years, or annual fecal occult blood test (FOBT) or sigmoidoscopy every five years.

Lung cancer: Once if you are a current or former smoker, age 55-80 and have a smoking history of at least 30 pack-years.

Men

Prostate cancer: Begin at age 45 for African Americans and other men with higher risk, and at age 50 for men with lower risk following an informed decision-making discussion with your PCP.

Abdominal aneurysm: Once between ages 65-75 if you have smoked.

Women

Cervical cancer: Pap test with HPV screening every five years for women ages 30-65.

Breast cancer: Mammography every two years based on risk.

Osteoporosis: Begin at age 60 or 65 based on risk.

Ages 75 and older

General wellness exam: Check blood pressure, heart rate, temperature and overall health annually.

Cholesterol: At least once every five years for adults ages 20 and older.

Diabetes: Begin at age 45, then every three years. More frequently based on risk.

Colon cancer: Colonoscopy by age 50 then every ten years, or annual fecal occult blood test (FOBT) or sigmoidoscopy every five years.

Lung cancer: Once if you are a current or former smoker, age 55-80 and have a smoking history of at least 30-pack years.

Vision: Every one to two years.

Men

Prostate cancer: Begin at age 45 for African Americans and other men with higher risk, and at age 50 for men with lower risk following an informed decision-making discussion with your PCP.

Women

Breast: Mammography is optional after 74.

Adult Vaccinations

Tetanus, Diphtheria (Td): Tdap – one dose. TD booster every 10 years.

Influenza: One dose annually at the beginning of flu season (typically September).

Pneumococcal: PCV13 – one dose after age 65. PPSV23 – one to two doses based on medical history.

Measles, mumps, and rubella (MMR): One to two doses if unvaccinated, born after 1957 and no evidence of immunity.

Meningococcal (Meningitis): One or more doses if not previously immunized, depending on risk factors and other indicators.

Varicella (Chicken pox): Two doses four to eight weeks apart without evidence of immunity.

Shingles: One dose after age 59.

Human papillomavirus (HPV): Women ages 18-26 if not previously immunized. Men ages 18-21. Two to three doses.

Hepatitis A: Two doses if not previously immunized if requested or at risk.

Hepatitis B: Three doses if not previously immunized.

Haemophilus influenza, type B: One or three doses if not previously immunized if you have asplenia, sickle cell anemia, stem cell transplant and other risk factors.

utica park clinic
Get Healthy. Stay Healthy.

The screening guidelines above are general recommendations. Talk to your primary care physician about screening frequencies that are right for you.